

Cambridge Summer Music Festival 2006

Music in the Park

CAPPELLA ARTOIS

Widely hailed as original, fun and gobsmackingly good, the group Cappella Artois sings folksongs and spirituals from around the world and their own idiosyncratic arrangements of jazz and popular numbers from Gershwin to the Beatles.

Wednesday 19 July
12.30pm - 1.30pm

PRIME BRASS

Renowned for its entertaining live performances, Cambridge-based Prime Brass has a repertoire spanning five centuries. It specialises in the lighter end of the musical spectrum and this lunchtime recital will have something for everyone!

Wednesday 26 July
12.30pm - 1.30pm

Free lunchtime concerts on the Cambridge Science Park

Grounds of Trinity Centre near the Lakes

Sponsored by XAAR
Supported by Arts & Business

A&B

XAAR®